

AAVSB STRATEGY MAP

Created February 2021

Vision	Mission	Values	Goals	Objectives
The AAVSB is the primary source for comprehensive information that strengthens the veterinary regulatory community.	To support and advance the regulatory process for veterinary medicine.	Protection of the public Reliability &amp; accuracy	Outreach The AAVSB is known as the leader in the veterinary regulatory process.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increase Member Boards’ understanding of and interaction with the Association</li> <li>• Expand and maintain relationships with allied groups</li> <li>• Educate and communicate with domestic and international veterinary and veterinary technology students and licensees</li> <li>• Educate the public about the role of regulation in protecting the consumer and their animals</li> </ul>
		Ethics &amp; integrity Service excellence	Member Board &amp; Veterinary Community Support The AAVSB actively collects, maintains, and disseminates information and knowledge, regarding veterinary regulatory processes and topics for the benefit of the Member Boards, the veterinary community, and consumers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increase the efficiency of Member Boards processes</li> <li>• Increase the comprehensiveness of the VIVA database</li> <li>• Collect and share relevant information on laws affecting the veterinary community</li> </ul>
		Active inclusion, participation, &amp; collaboration Stewardship of resources	Policy Leadership The AAVSB is the leader in providing direction and resources related to legislative and regulatory matters.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enhance Member Boards’ understanding of emerging regulatory issues affecting veterinary medicine</li> <li>• Explore a plan for veterinarian delegation and remote supervision of practice to address areas in need of veterinary services</li> <li>• Create model language related to ownership of veterinary practices by various entities</li> </ul>